Once there was a leprechaun family who lived under a rainbow. This particular family had only one child. Her name was Lucy and they loved her very much. There was one thing, however, that was odd about Lucy. She was bubblegum pink from head to toe! Everyone else in Leprechaun Land was green. All the children made fun of Lucy. This made her very sad.

One day when Lucy was putting a pot of gold under a rainbow she decided to run away. She was tired of being teased and didn’t like that she was different. She thought for a moment on where she could go. Then a wonderful idea popped into her head. “I know where I will be accepted, in the human world!” To get there was very dangerous. She would have to go through a dark forest and cross a river filled with monsters. She wasn’t sure if she was brave enough to make it.
Lucy soon arrived at the forest. It was indeed very dark just as her parents had told her. Lucy was a brave girl, though she heard animals growling, she kept on walking. She was at the edge of the forest when an owl swooped down and took a bite of Lucy’s bubblegum pink hair! Lucy screamed and ran out of the forest. Luckily, she was a very quick leprechaun!

When Lucy reached the river she saw that it was filled with crocodiles. "Thank goodness its not monsters!" Lucy said. The river was not very wide. Lucy, being a brave girl, jumped across. She almost made it. At the last moment a crocodile jumped out of the water and bit her! A hand reached out pulling Lucy back from the crocodile. Lucy turned to her rescuer- it was a human girl!
The girl introduced her family. Lucy saw that everyone was different. Staying with the humans made Lucy realize that being different was awesome! She missed her family and decided to return home.

Once Lucy was home no one teased her again. Lucy accepted who she was. A very pink and brave girl!
