I sat down and finished writing when two of my friends were fighting. My teacher started biting.

When we went to art, my teacher ran to a mini mart. Some boys started to fart.

Overwhelmed teacher!

All of a sudden Jack started singing and Mack's key chains were clinging.

Overwhelmed teacher!
Are teacher heard us talking, someone said something very shocking! We had to practice walking.

I went home and wrote her a letter I better go and getter, it made her feel better.

Not so over whelmed teacher!

Our teachers glasses broke and are pet frog began to croak, we were sad and my teacher was mad.

Sad/mad overwhelmed teacher!
My teacher began to cry I don't know why? It happens sometimes. Crying overwhelmed teacher!

My teacher came to school with spots that turned into dots she had to do lots.
