Living with Lego People

By Thomas Coleman
Once upon a time there was two little lego people. One was a boy and the other was a twin brother but was shorter and they had a dog to and their dad went to work when their mom was washing the dishes.
and they all lived in New York City and then their little boy went to school on the first day of school and the big boy was graduating into third grade.
The next day the dad went to work and the mom had breakfast and the little boy had breakfast and the big boy had breakfast and then the big boy went to school and the little boy went to school. And the mom emailed her friends.
And then after the dad got back from work he went to a tennis game with the big boy and the mom went to the toy store to get the little boy a toy.
and then mom had breakfast and then the big boy was going to school and then the dog had breakfast and then they bought a pet and the pet was a cat.
